

Members of USTKIP, member non-governmental organizations and managers of member orga

- Respecting the democratic understanding and human rights that are defined under international law and accepted by the international public opinion,
- Any kind of terrorism and violence,
- Adopting the conception of development concerning regional and global peace,
- Treating fairly all the people without any discrimination regarding religion, language, ethnicity, sex and region,
- Adopting the vision and mission of USTKIP,
- Remaining a non-profit organization,
- Preventing the services within USTKIP to be exploited for personal interest and politics in the strict sense,
- Respecting and tolerating differences,
- Cooperating with USTKIP member NGOs and their directors,
- Being available for contact to every section of society,
- Possessing no legal obstruction for carrying out activities,
- Contributing to the fortification of common ideal and identity,
- Avoiding any hierarchical ties with national authority,
- Respecting the law and culture of the foreign country carrying out activities.

